Cora received her J.D. and a B.A. (with Distinction) from the University of Manitoba.

Prior to law, Cora worked as Manager of Project Development and Communications for one of Winnipeg's leading architectural firms where she led the firm's business procurement process for large-scale capital projects.

In her downtime, Cora is actively involved in the community through her work on various boards, committees, and not-for-profits.

She has been involved in consultation and organizational change in small and large-scale organizations, both private and public. This experience, combined with her board work, has given her a broad appreciation for a diverse range of client needs and perspectives.
